

the time specified in the plan, the executive's appraisal period shall be extended for the amount of time necessary to meet the minimum appraisal period at which time a rating of record shall be prepared.

(f) Transfer of rating. If an executive moves to a new agency or new organization in the employing agency at any time during the appraisal period, the current performance ratings of record must be transferred, as required by § 293.404(b)(2) of this chapter. A summary rating must be prepared as required in § 430.305(a) which must be taken into consideration by the gaining agency when deriving the next rating of record.

(g) Documentation. Agencies shall provide to each senior executive a copy of the following documents at the time they are prepared: The initial rating, along with notification of the right to respond in writing and to request a higher level review before the rating becomes final; any comments and recommended changes by a higher level executive; and the final rating. As required in § 293.404(b)(1) of this chapter, agencies are required to maintain all performance related records for no less than 5 years from the date the rating is issued.

§ 430.307 Performance Review Boards (PRBs).

As required by 5 U.S.C. 4314(c), each agency is required to establish one or more PRBs to make recommendations to the appointing authority on the performance of senior executives in the agency.

(a) Each PRB in an agency shall have three or more members appointed by the head of the agency or by another official or group acting on behalf of the head of the agency.

(b) Notice of appointment to the PRB must be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(c) The members of the PRB must be appointed in such a manner as to assure consistency, stability, and objectivity in performance appraisal.

(d) When appraising a career appointee, more than one-half of the membership of the PRB must be SES career appointees unless OPM determines that there exists an insufficient number of career appointees available to comply with the requirement.

(e) Each PRB will review and evaluate the initial rating, the senior executive's written response, if any, and the written comments, if any, on the initial rating by a higher level executive, and will conduct such further review as the PRB finds necessary.

(f) Individual PRB members must not take part in any PRB deliberations involving their own appraisals.

(g) The PRB must make a written recommendation concerning each senior executive's rating of record.

§ 430.308 Training and evaluation.

To assure that agency performance appraisal systems will be effectively implemented, agencies must provide appropriate training and information to supervisors and senior executives on the appraisal process, and must establish methods and procedures to evaluate periodically the effectiveness of the system(s) and to implement improvements as needed.

§ 430.309 OPM review of SES appraisal systems.

(a) OPM will review performance appraisal systems to determine if they conform to requirements of law, OPM regulations, and OPM performance management policy.

(b) If OPM determines that an appraisal system does not meet the requirements and intent of subchapter II of chapter 43 of title 5, United States Code, or of this subpart, it shall direct the agency to implement an appropriate system or to correct operations under the system. The agency shall take any action so required.

§ 430.310 SES performance appraisal systems.

Agencies must submit proposed SES performance appraisal plans to OPM for approval as part of Performance Management Plans in accordance with provisions of this subpart.
